

PTGF Convention & Exam Scholarship Application Instructions

The Piano Technicians Guild Foundation offers up to eight Convention & Exam Scholarships each year. These scholarships cover both registration and one exam fee. Previous applicants who did not receive a scholarship are welcome to reapply.

To be considered, an applicant must:

- Have passed two RPT exams
- Take the third test at the upcoming PTG convention

The following supporting documents are required for application submission:

- A detailed resume, which should include
 - Details concerning your training in piano technology, e.g., attendance at a formal course of study, correspondence course(s), apprenticeship, mentoring
 - Work history, including other work as well as piano technology
 - Dates of PTG and chapter membership
 - Chapter involvement, including attendance at meetings and other activities
 - Attendance to date at PTG seminars and conferences
 - Attendance to date at the PTG Annual Convention
 - Any other information you consider pertinent to the application
- A personal statement (500 word limit) describing why you should be considered for this scholarship including financial need and career plans.
- Two signed letters of recommendation from individuals with knowledge of your character and abilities.
 - The online application form will ask you for the email addresses of your letter writers, and will automatically send them an email with a link to upload their letter. Please let them know to expect an email from Jotform, the application platform. You will receive application updates via email when each letter is uploaded.

Supporting documents must be in PDF format for upload. Apply securely online at ptgf.org in the Scholarships section.

Applications are due by April 30 and will be reviewed promptly by the PTGF Scholarship Committee. Additional information may be requested. Applications received after April 30 will not be considered. The winner(s) will be announced by May 15 and notified via email.

Questions? Contact scholarships@ptgfoundation.org